HAPPENINGS...

JACKSONVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY, February 2019

"Alice's Ordinary People" Film Screening with Filmmaker Craig Dudnick: Tuesday, February 12 at 6:30 p.m.

This is the story of Alice Tregay. Her life story reads like a history of the Civil Rights Movement. When Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. came to Chicago, Alice and her husband marched with him. Alice and her "ordinary people" effected extraordinary change for human rights through five decades of fearless activism. The creator of her documentary will be here to discuss the film, Alice Tregay, and the ongoing fight for justice.

Kid's Corner: Stir It Up on Tuesday, February 12 at 7 p.m.

This is a monthly cooking group for kids and their adults. This month, we will make snack mix squares and decorate recipe boxes. Feel free to bring your own recipe and/or a sample to share.

*Reasonable accommodations will be made upon request.

Presidential Marriages and Romances: Monday, February 11 at 7p.m.

Tom Emery, a writer and historical researcher, will offer an entertaining look at the marriages, romances, and love lives of the presidents. While some of the most famous presidents will be covered, this program will also emphasize some of the lesser-known presidents while discussing the successes and failures of their marriages. White House weddings will be covered, as will the lives of presidents behind the scenes.

Music Under the Dome with Switchback: Sunday, February 24 at 4 p.m.

The award-winning duo of Brian Fitzgerald and Martin McCormack draw on traditional Celtic music and original Americana songs that reflect their Irish heritage and Midwestern roots. They play an exciting mix of mandolin, guitar, and bass and have been compared to the Everly Brothers and Simon & Garfunkel.
