JACKSONVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY, DECEMBER 2017

HOLIDAY CRAFTS

Thursday,
December 7th at 6:30pm

On Thursday, December 7th at 6:30pm adults and teens are invited to make simple but elegant holiday crafts. Perfect for home decoration or a gift, folded book trees are charming and homemade gift tags will personalize your gifts this holiday season.

All supplies will be provided, but this program requires registration. There will be holiday music and refreshments will be served. Seating is limited so stop in or give us a call at (217) 243-5435 to register.

Kid's Corner

Winter in the Woods Party
Saturday, Dec. 16th at 10am

The whole family is invited to a party that will invoke the wonder of the woods in winter. Kids will play Jingle Bell Toss and Snowman Slam for prizes. They will make woodcut ornaments and paint a holiday picture ready-to-go with a frame.

Santa is making a stop, so have your list ready!

STAFF PICKS

Check the newsletter each month for new staff recommendations!

Cindy: The Address by Fiona Davis: A dash of mystery mixed with a dose of history. It's a great read!

Diane: Appetite for Life: The Biography of Julia Child by Noel Riley Finch: A thoroughly absorbing and fascinating account of the inspiring life of Julia Child who changed the world for all American cooks.

Heidi: Prairie-town Boy by Carl Sandburg: This autobiographical book entertains readers with Sandburg's memories of his youth. Set largely in Galesburg, Illinois, the anecdotes describing family and friends and his boyhood jobs provide a social history of the Midwest in the 1880's and 1890's.

Sarah: A Monster Calls by Patrick Ness: A young boy, who is struggling to deal with the idea that his mother has a terminal illness, is visited every night by a monster who tells him stories.
