HAPPENINGS...

JACKSONVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY, January 2019

Bullet Journaling 101: Tuesday, January 15 at 7 p.m.

This program will cover all the basics of bullet journaling including: the background and reason for using the system, the importance of the index, your future log, monthly log, daily log, collections, bullets and signifiers, and migration. This system is designed to help you organize your life! Take advantage of this free program to start your new year off right.

Kid's Corner: Stir It Up on Tuesday, January 8 at 7 p.m.

This is a monthly cooking group for kids and their adults. We will be making a recipe at each meeting to encourage kids to learn cooking skills with their parents. Please bring a recipe that kids will enjoy making along with a sample.

Libby App Workshop: Saturday, January 12 at 3 p.m.

Would you like to learn how to download e-books and e-audiobooks for your device? The Libby app is the easiest way to download items for free from the library. Please bring your device (Apple or Android based) to the workshop in order to follow along.

Amazon Kindle not supported yet for Libby. You may receive help downloading the Overdrive app for your Kindle Fire by scheduling an appointment with a librarian.

Movie Matinee for Adults: BlacKkKlansman on Saturday, January 26 at 2 p.m.

The true story of a black detective who sets out to infiltrate the Colorado chapter of the Ku Klux Klan with the help of his Jewish colleague. In the midst of the 1970s civil rights movement, they risk their lives to obtain insider information on the violent organization. This movie is rated R for language throughout, including racial epithets, and for disturbing/violent material and some sexual references. 18+

Reasonable accommodations will be made upon request.
